Go-round: What did you find provoking in this essay? 1. What does it mean to you that Jesus and Paul stored their truth in human vessels? 2. If you have had a mentor, how is his or her truth stored in you? 3. Have read aloud para 2 & 3 on page 2. How are you both kept in the Truth by others, and impact others with the Truth?		1. Have read aloud the first para on page 3. Describe your parish and how you feel about being responsible for that parish. 2. Have read aloud the para 2 & 3 on page 3. Which of these five activities seem most difficult for you to do in your parish? 3. In your parish what study might you organize and for who? 4. Say what worship might be fostered in your parish? 5. In your own words say how Witness is different from Worship and Study? 6. Have read aloud the last para on page 5. How does this para assist your view of evangelism? 7. Have read aloud the poem on page 6. What does the Zacchaeus poem say to you about the transformations of life that your evangelism aims to foster? 8. What are some of the justice issues in your parish? What could 2 or 3 or more of you do about those issues? 9. Where do you experience the blocks to bringing discipline to your parish or to your Christian circle? 10. Have read aloud the closing para. How has this session provided you with some further insight about the meaning of a second birth into the family of Almighty Reality? What is still puzzling to you about being the body of Christ in your parish?
